-The Middle School presentation for Teen Camp went well

-Katie will apply for the FSB grant for the ACB Program

-TD BankNorth declined the grant application

-Hannaford offers a grant which is due July 1st for up to $1000, which Katie would use for ACB

-Michelle Durham of Silly Goose DayCare in Sanbornton proposed use of the Pines as an emergency location for her DayCare. The Board declined on the basis that her DayCare is a private business. However, it was noted that Katie should check with the schools, fire department, police about the Pines being an emergency location for the community

-A rock climber, Chris Hussman, volunteered to take kids rock climbing. He has all the equipment. The Board declined on the basis of liability

-Staff training for the Playground Program is tomorrow

-Trisha Hoffman will be running a Cheer Clinic, July 28 – 29

-Allie Keith and Molly Ryan want to run a Field Hockey Camp. In order to run it through the Pines, it would need to be a Pines program and they would have to be volunteer coaches.

-The Amazing Race is shaping up for Old Home Day. There will be no float this year. It was suggested that Katie ask kids and parents to walk in the parade for the Pines

-WMUR was scheduled for a tour for the Summer Playground kids but had to be cancelled, could possibly be scheduled later. Josh Judge might come in to talk about weather.

Recreation Director's Report:

-Had nothing to add to what Katie already reported

Presidents Report:

-Scott Spradling will be scheduled for August to come to talk with the council about press releases and media exposure, at a cost of $250.

-Katie asked if Addie could be brought in more often during the Summer Program for the kids. The Council agreed to let Katie decide how often she wanted to bring her in
